DEFINITIONS

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is the person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing.

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt that was owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the Claims Agent at the following address.

Lehman Brothers Holdings Claims Processing
c/o Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC
FDR Station, PO Box 5076
New York, NY 10150- 5076

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured Claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

Derivative Contract

A contract that is any of (i) a "swap agreement" as such term is defined in section 101(53B) of the Bankruptcy Code or (ii) a "forward contract" as such term is defined in section 101(25) of the Bankruptcy Code. Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

Dear Thomson:

This is an agreement and release concerning your separation from employment by Lehman Brothers. If you sign and comply with this agreement, you will receive the payments and benefits discussed below.

Effective Dates, Payments and Benefits

1. Today will be the last day that you are expected to report to work.
2. You will receive a lump sum special separation payment consisting of $25,000 on or about four weeks after our receipt of this signed agreement. All payments will be subject to withholding, payroll taxes and other applicable deductions.
3. In addition, Lehman will pay for the cost of your COBRA coverage through no later than September 8, 2009 if you are not otherwise eligible to be covered by any other group health insurance plan. If you become eligible to participate in another group health insurance plan during your period of COBRA coverage and prior to September 8, 2009 you must notify the Human Resources Service Center (212-526-2363) at which time Lehman will discontinue this coverage.
4. Lehman Brothers has retained Right Management Consultants to provide you with outplacement counseling services. These services are designed to assist you with counseling on resume writing, interviewing skills, networking techniques, and a job search campaign. We encourage you to take advantage of these services in order to ensure a smooth career transition. To sign up, please call John Henrikson at (800) 490-8494.
5. You and your covered dependents, pursuant to the COBRA law, may be eligible to continue health insurance coverage for up to 18 months from your separation date, at your own expense. Your right to continue or convert coverage (including COBRA coverage) after your separation date will be governed by the terms of our plans.
6. Your rights to benefits under any employee benefits plans will be determined in accordance with the terms of such plans. Our employee benefits plans may be modified or terminated at any time.
